Killing The Shadows Val Mcdermid

McDermid also has written a number of standalone thrillers, Killing The Shadows is one of them. And yes, it's quite a thriller

Fiona Cameron is an academic psychologist who uses a computer program to geologically track murders and help the police find serial killers. In this story, there are three different cases on the go.

Killing the Shadows by Val McDermid - Goodreads

Her new thriller KILLING THE SHADOWS is as compelling as her last, A PLACE OF EXECUTION. McDermid has become our leading pathologist of everyday evil, and she both thrills and scares in this tale of celebrity stalking with a difference, in which the new technologies take on a most sinister colouring.

Killing the Shadows | Val McDermid | Macmillan

Val McDermid's Killing the Shadows is a rare treat -- a serial killer targeting crime writers and killing them using methods that the writers have used to kill the characters in their books. McDermid's characters are believable and likeable, the plot moves swiftly, and the puzzle is wonderfully difficult. I've read many, many a mystery and thriller, and this is definitely one of the best that I've read in a long time. She's definitely in Thomas Harris territory (and some of the crimes in ...
