Masters of Rome - Website of Robert Fabbri, bestselling ...

The long story of Vespasian's rise from a lowly rural landowning family to the ultimate heights of power in Rome continues in Masters of Rome. The previous four volumes in the series were excellent, detailing the salient points of the young Vespasian's career in the Legions and in politics. This book was a bit of a disappointment. Although Masters of Rome continues Vespasian's rise, the story is too disjointed to really be enjoyable as a complete and coherent story on its own.
