Equally superb narration by Peter Forbes again whose voice sounds like it was created to read Peter May novels. I already have the sixth in the China series ready to go, "Chinese Whispers" which I'm certain will not disappoint. I fall more in love with the central characters as each story develops and the supporting characters add greatly to the complex relationship between Lee and Margaret while being clearly drawn and fully rounded characters in their own right.

Runner | Definition of Runner by Merriam-Webster

He is solemn and dark. He moves laboringly, apparently without purpose. He walks to the newly opened stool and orders his food. Soon, there is a hand on his shoulder. Turning slowly back, Deckert looks into the eyes of a dark skinned man - Gaff - and begins his own mystical journey. The setting in Blade Runner is dark and brooding.
