Literacy with an Attitude: Educating Working-Class ...

Literacy with an Attitude is a well rounded look at the ways in which society, and its imperceptible fingertips come to influence the way that our schools operate, and thus how our children learn. As a beginning teacher who will be serving primarily working-class children, I thought this book gives great takeaways for people who are somehow connected to the world of schools.

Literacy with an Attitude, Second Edition: Educating ...

Literacy with an Attitude, written by Patrick J. Finn, attempts to redefine literacy as the term exists within the education field. In his professional life, Finn served as an Associate Professor Emeritus of the Graduate School of Education from the University of Buffalo. He also and co-chairs a committee of Urban Education through the University of Buffalo that helps provide support for the schools and school districts in Buffalo, NY. His book outlines the differences between 'domesticating' an
