This volume does not resolve the quandaries about what is right or wrong in dermatopathology. It may create as many quandaries as it resolves; however, it does stimulate the reader to think about some of these puzzles. As Ackerman explains at the end of the book, the term resolving does not mean "to imply that those conundra have now been solved. In time, some of the concepts advanced in these pages may be demonstrated to be correct... others, doubtlessly, will be proved wrong."
