Richard George Lipsey, OC FRSC (born August 28, 1928) is a Canadian academic and economist. He is best known for his work on the economics of the second-best, a theory that demonstrated that piecemeal establishing of individual first best conditions would not necessarily raise welfare in a situation in which all first best conditions could not be satisfied, an article that he co-authored with ...

Richard Lipsey - Wikipedia

A traditional approach to economic theory places short-run topics first, and then transitions into long-run issues in Chapter 25, The Difference Between Short-Run and Long-Run Macroeconomics.; A policy-oriented presentation includes behind-the-scenes perspectives on difficult topics, explaining why economists draw particular conclusions rather than simply stating the conclusions.
