I made pretty much every classic

mistake a new business owner can make and but I pushed hard and grew this little corner of the birth world we now call Badass. It is that experience of growing a solid business in birth, breaking boundaries and proving people wrong that has led me to now focus on training the next generation of birth workers.

Badass Birth

Aries people are born rebels, and you will hardly come across one who does not have a rebellious streak in them. They are one of those zodiac signs who are truly badass and are hardly scared or intimidated by anything or anyone. Arians will always charge forward when it comes to achieving success, and they won't care who is standing in the way.

Badass: The Birth of a Legend eBook by Ben Thompson ...

Badass: The Birth of a Legend is a very fun book, especially if you're the sort of person who can get into reading about virtually all-powerful beings who can defeat just about anyone or anything they are up against. It uses the words "awesome" and "hardcore" practically every chapter [Ed: I'd say paragraph...] and occasionally goes on tangents - such as about how Skeletor should really ride his giant panther more often and how the author would ride his humongous wildcat to the ...

Aspects of the story of Buddha's birth may have been borrowed from Hindu texts, such as the account of the birth of Indra from the Rig Veda. The story may also have Hellenic influences. For a time after Alexander the Great conquered central Asia in 334 BCE, there was a considerable intermingling of Buddhism with Hellenic art and ideas.
