TIMON OF ATHENS has never been one of the poet's popular plays, but it is fascinating. The BBC production is quite good. This was the favourite play of Karl Marx! I am a huge Shakespeare fan, but I admit Timon of Athens is not his most entertaining read. The story follows the tragic downfall of the wealthy, powerful, generous Timon, as his financial collapse drives him to madness. The story is very depressing, but it is very insightful with powerful character development.
