information held by public authorities. The Regulations do this in two ways: public
authorities must make environmental information available proactively; members of the public are entitled to request environmental information from public authorities.

Government Regulation and the Financial Services

Sector

Small and Medium Enterprises are defined by the European Commission as having less than 250 employees, independent and with an annual turnover of no more than €50 million or annual balance sheet of €43 million. SMEs have been identified as a problem area in the field of environmental regulation. Whilst the individual environmental impacts of SMEs are generally small in comparison to those of large corporations, the cumulative environmental impacts of the sector are large. They also pose ...
