15) Train your children to date only those individuals who are morally upright, and urge them strongly to plan on marrying only a Christian (Matthew 6:33; 2 Corinthians 6:16). 16) Raise your children to have respect for and to cherish warm relationships with older people (1 Peter 5:5). Keep them from forming youth “cliques” when they are young, and most likely they will never be factious, divisive, or cliquish when they are older.
