Definition of intranet : a network operating like the World Wide Web but having access restricted to a limited group of authorized users (such as employees of a company) Examples of intranet in a Sentence

Intranet | Definition of Intranet by Merriam-Webster

An intranet is a computer network for sharing information, collaboration tools, operational systems, and other computing services within an organization, usually to the exclusion of access by outsiders. The term is used in contrast to public networks, such as the Internet, but uses most of the same technology based on the Internet Protocol Suite.

Intranet - Wikipedia

An intranet comes with several in-built features that make a difference in this context. It's possible to restrict access to sensitive information with role-based rights to the site, pages, and files. Furthermore, you can securely share data within the intranet and across users. 3.
