Road Media

All three books in the American Book Award-winning Memory of Fire Trilogy available in a single volume for the first time. Eduardo Galeano's Memory of Fire Trilogy defies categorization—or perhaps creates its own. It is a passionate, razor-sharp, lyrical history of North and South America, from the birth of the continent's indigenous peoples through the end of the twentieth century. The three volumes form a haunting and dizzying whole that resurrects the lives of Indians, conquistadors, slaves, revolutionaries, poets, and more. The first book, Genesis, pays homage to the many origin stories of the tribes of the Americas, and paints a verdant portrait of life in the New World through the age of the conquistadors. The second book, Faces and Masks, spans the two centuries between the years 1700 and 1900, in which colonial powers plundered their newfound territories, ultimately giving way to a rising tide of dictators. And in the final installment, Century of the Wind, Galeano brings his story into the twentieth century, in which a fractured continent enters the modern age as popular revolts blaze from North to South. This celebrated series is a landmark of contemporary Latin American writing, and a brilliant document of culture.

La máquina de los abrazos

Faces and Masks Open Road Media

"A book as fascinating as the history it relates . . . Galeano is a satirist, realist, and historian." —Los Angeles Times For centuries, Europe's imperial powers brutally exploited the peoples and resources of the New World. While soldiers of fortune marched across continents in search of El Dorado, white settlers established plantations and trading posts along the coasts, altering the land and bringing disease and slavery with them. In the midst of a bloody collision of civilizations, the West has birthed new societies out of the old. In the second book of his Memory of Fire trilogy, Eduardo Galeano forges a new understanding of the Americas, history retold from a diverse collection of viewpoints. Spanning the end of empire and the age of revolutions, Faces and Masks brilliantly collects the strands of the past into an iridescent work of literature.

Genesis Open Road Media

"An epic work of literary creation . . . There could be no greater vindication of the wonders of the lands and people of Latin America than Memory of Fire." —The Washington Post Eduardo Galeano's monumental three-volume retelling of the history of the New World begins with Genesis, a vast chain of legends sweeping from the birth of creation to the era of savage colonialism. Through lyrical prose and deep understanding, Galeano (author of the celebrated Open Veins of Latin America) recounts creation myths, pre-Columbian societies, and the brutality of conquest, from the Andes to the Great Plains. Galeano's project to restore to history "breath, liberty, and the word" unfolds as a unique, powerful work of literature. This daring masterpiece sets the past free, weaving a new kind of history from mythology, silenced voices, and the clash of worlds. Genesis is the first book of the Memory of Fire trilogy, which continues with Faces and Masks and Century of the Wind.

Century of the Wind Open Road Media

"Nothing less than a unified history of the Western Hemisphere." —The New Yorker From Guatemala to Rio de Janeiro, La Paz to New York City, Managua to Havana, Century of the Wind ties together the events and people—both large and small—that define the Americas. In hundreds of lyrical and vivid narratives, the final installment of Galeano's indispensable trilogy sees the building of the Panama Canal, the disenfranchisement of indigenous peoples living over Colombia's oil fields, the creation of Superman and the heyday of Faulkner, and coups and upheavals that cleaved an already fragmented continent. Galeano's elegy moves year by year through the century of Castro, Picasso, and Reagan, blending the many voices and varying locales of North and South America and forming a history that is stunning in its scope and savage beauty.

M^a Dolores Villuendas Giménez es Doctora por la Universidad Complutense de Madrid. Ha sido Profesora de Psicología Evolutiva y de la Educación en las Universidades Complutense y Autónoma de Madrid, así como en la Universidad de Granada. Es miembro del Instituto de la Mujer de esta última Universidad, y también ha trabajado como investigadora en la Manchester Metropolitan University. Es autora de los ensayos "Sueño y alimentación infantil" (Narcea, 1986), "Limpieza, llanto y compañía" (Narcea, 1986), "Identidad cognitiva. La estructura mental del niño de 4 a 7 años" (Narcea, 1986), "Acción y representación; interacción social y aprendizaje" (Ministerio de Educación y Ciencia, 1988) y "Relaciones de género en Psicología y Educación" (Publicaciones Oficiales de la Comunidad de Madrid, 2003). También es autora de numerosos artículos que profundizan en la sensibilidad feminista y las relaciones entre nietos y abuelos dentro del contexto de los nuevos modelos de familia. Con un estilo analítico y divulgativo, este ensayo aborda los conflictos en las relaciones entre nietos/as y abuelas/os que las nuevas coyunturas sociolaborales y jurídicas han dado lugar. Por la amplitud de miras y su profundidad reflexiva, esta obra arroja luz tanto a lectores particulares que se ven afectados por estas circunstancias, como al debate general de la cuestión, que debe ser impulsado de una forma más enérgica en las instituciones sociales.

Papers in the Wind

A Novel Other Press, LLC

From the best-selling author of The Secret in Their Eyes, an adventure about friendship, soccer, and good humor When Alejandro "Mono" dies of cancer, his brother and two closest friends, a tight-knit group since childhood, are left to figure out how to take care of his young daughter, Guadalupe. They want to give her all the love they felt for Mono and secure her future, but there isn't a single peso left in the bank. Mono invested all of his money in a promising soccer player whose talents haven't panned out, and the three hundred thousand dollars Mono spent on his transfer is soon to be lost for good. How do you sell a forward who can't score a goal? How do you negotiate in a world whose rules you don't know? How do you maintain relationships when repeated failures create fissures in lifelong loyalties? Fernando, Mauricio, and Ruso pool the few resources in their arsenal to come up with strategies—from harebrained to inspired—in their desperate attempt to recoup Mono's investment for Guadalupe. Following the lives of four distinct characters, who, despite their great differences, still manage to find solace and pride in one another, Papers in the Wind is a tribute to friendship and proof that love and humor can triumph over sadness.
