I followed this up in January with a re-read (been more than 10 years) of Legion, the sequel that inspired the third flick. Strangely William Peter Blatty took his last breath three days later. RIP for the author, he dished out some chilling stories. We all remember the bizarre and relentless Lieutenant Kinderman from the original story.

William Peter Blatty - Wikipedia

William Peter Blatty is certainly a great writer. However this book stands no comparison with The Exorcist. The Exorcist had a far superior storyline, a far superior characters' depth, and a far superior dramatic impact. Legion on the other hand has none of that. A good read, but nothing more.

Certainly it's no Exorcist. So please, stop comparing it to that.
