To set aside the first part of your day and give it to God, set your alarm earlier than normal. Thirty minutes to an hour should allow you enough time to pray and read the Bible and/ or read an inspirational book. The night before you begin, it would be nice to gather a few special "ingredients" for your devotional prayer time.

Making Time for God | A Virtuous

Woman: A Proverbs 31 Ministry

God gave us 24 hours in a day to accomplish what we need to get done. This includes adequate sleep, rest, and play. However, it's when we sleep too much, rest too much, or play too much that we fall into trouble. Some people fall on the other side of this spectrum by spending too much time on the job or doing school work.
