The Airbnb Story is a wonderful close-up and a very revealing look into one of the most famous startups in the world. What I particularly liked about the book is that Leigh Gallagher focuses on the people: the founders themselves, but also the hosts and guests – all the human beings who make Airbnb what it is. She spoke to many people and as a result the book is not done from a distance, as a dry history, but comes alive with the insights and stories of the Airbnb stakeholders.
