This Wide Night is different in kind. This elegant two-hander, produced by Naked Angels and mounted at Playwrights Horizons, is crafted as a drama that intends to use prison more metaphorically than plays like Norman's or devised performance like Jones's.

This Wide Night | in New York

This Wide Night is a tender portrayal of two troubled women trying to contend with the very frightening prospect of starting again. It is both beautifully moving and darkly comical, following a friendship that is so intense and co-dependent that it ultimately proves to be destructive. Directed by Sophie Reynolds Produced by Nick Rowell . If you are having any issues with ticket reservations or ...

This Wide Night (Thurs)

While it has its moments of comedy, This Wide Night is a grim enough two-hander, showing us the character's attempts to establish new lives outside of prison. That Marie—who has slipped into prostitution—is fearful of everything outside the flat is obvious from the word go; grabbing a knife or glass bottle to defend herself at the first knock on the door. Lorraine, on the other hand, is ...
