Walking away from faith is not new, and it should not take us by surprise. Our Lord taught that some seed springs up quickly, but having no root, it withers away (Mk 4:5-6, 16-17). Many of our Lord's disciples turned back and no longer followed Him (John 6:66). The best known of these is Judas Iscariot.

This book is not about that! Countless books have already been written on that issue.

Walking away from Faith, part 1, overview | Enough Light

The reason so many are choosing to walk away from their faith is because they feel like they are only posed with the option to accept it all, every part of the church, every doctrine, every rule, and every part of the Bible OR...nothing. They would rather choose nothing. And this is a tragedy because there is a place for them to exist.

reasons why millennials are walking away from their faith
