Louisiana law, however, employs a doctrine known as "comparative fault" in negligence cases. This means that liability will be spread to everyone who contributed to accident, in equal proportion to their proven fault. For example, let's say you didn't use your blinker or look over your shoulder when you were changing lanes.

Louisiana Negligence Laws - FindLaw

Law in the state of Louisiana is based on a more diverse set of sources than the laws of the other 49 states of the United States. Private law—that is, substantive law between private sector parties, principally contracts and torts—has a civil law character, based on French and Spanish codes and ultimately Roman law, with some common law influences. Louisiana's criminal law largely rests on American common law. Louisiana's administrative law is generally similar to the administrative law ...
