Cell (film) - Wikipedia

Stephen King, like Charles Dickens before him, has this gift in spades. (The Times) The true narrative artist is a rare creature. Storytelling - the ability to make the listener or the reader need to know, demand to know, what happens next - is a gift. I don't think it can be taught . . . Stephen King, like Charles Dickens before him, has this gift in spades. (The Times) What makes this one of ...

Stephen King | The Official Website

This book is written in the usual Stephen King fashion and draws the reader in at the start. However what follows is a mediocre attempt at an original story. I kind of gave up and just read it for what it was. It didn't have the excitement and the intrigue normally associated with his novels.
