The Art Of Falling Apart

The Art of Falling Apart is the second full-length album by the English synthpop duo Soft Cell, released in 1983. The album reached No. 5 on the UK charts, although its two singles "Where the Heart Is" and the double A-sided single "Numbers" / "Barriers" both failed to reach the Top 20, breaking the duo's run of five consecutive Top 5 singles in the UK, reaching No. 21 and No. 25, respectively.

The Art of Falling Apart - Wikipedia

The art of falling apart is a good reflection of the duo's feelings and torment in 81-82. For starters, the duo absolutely hated their star song (Tainted love) at this point. There were also tensions with the record company about what had to be included in the record, and what could not be included.
