Easy Guide To Baby Sign

Start with a sign for something your baby is interested in. For example, lots of babies quickly pick up the sign for "more" in relation to food! Every time you use a word, show your baby the corresponding sign at the same time. Always use the same sign and use lots of repetition to emphasise the key word and sign (GOFSD 2013). This way your baby can clearly see and hear the connection.

"Change" is an important sign because it gives your baby a heads up that you're transitioning from play to diapering—something he probably won't want to do. Signing "change" will help them understand the toy break is temporary. When you're done, sign "done" and say, "We are DONE," so that your baby knows changing time is over.
