In the Christian faith, there is a core set of beliefs. Some churches differ slightly on their use of confessional statements, catechism, and creeds, but regardless of the label, the core beliefs...

What Do Christians Really Believe?

Christians believe in one God that exists in three persons—the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit. Christians believe that mankind was created specifically to have a relationship with God, but sin separates all men from God (Romans 3:23; 5:12).

What is Christianity and what do Christians believe ...

It is foundational that a true Christian will believe in a Supreme Being of superior power and intellect. 2. Jesus Christ was God in the flesh. Christianity is based on Jesus Christ. Christians believe He did exist and walk the roads of Judea about 2,000 years ago. But it isn't enough to believe simply that the historical figure Jesus Christ lived. A Christian must believe He was the Son of God.

The Faith: What Christians Believe, Why They Believe It ...

What Christians Believe. Christians worship Jesus as Lord and Saviour – accepting the message of the gospel expressed clearly in John chapter 3 verse 16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him will not perish, but have eternal life." In acceptance of this, Christians find their relationship with God restored.

What Christians Believe - Diocese of St Albans

The Faith is a book for our troubled times and for decades to come, for Christians and non-Christians alike. Colson considered The Faith to be his legacy book to the Christian world: a thought-provoking, soul-searching, and powerful manifesto of the great, historical central truths of Christianity that have sustained believers through the centuries. Brought to immediacy with vivid, true stories, here is what Christianity is really about and why it is a religion of hope, redemption, and beauty.

The Faith: What Christians Believe, Why They Believe It ...

Few Christians understand their religion. Colson explains succinctly what Christians believe, why they believe it, and why it is important. He presents Christian "orthodoxy" in the context of engaging true stories that educate, captivate and illustrate the real meaning of Church teaching on God, on individuals, and society.

The Faith: What Christians Believe, Why They Believe It ...

Faith is choosing to believe First of all, the Christian faith professes an unreserved belief in the Bible, God's Word to mankind – true, tested and unchanging. Faith is also full and unreserved confidence in God, in His love for me, and in His power to help me whatever comes my way in life.

What is faith? A commentary on the meaning of faith.

Faith (pistis) in Eastern Christianity is an activity of the nous or spirit. Faith being characteristic of the noesis or noetic experience of the spirit. Faith here being defined as intuitive truth meaning as a gift from God, faith is one of God's uncreated energies (Grace too is another of God's uncreated energies and gifts).
