River Of Blue Fire Otherland

Length: 24.5 hours. The sequel to City of Golden Shadow and the 2nd book (of 4) in the Otherland series, River of Blue Fire is a solid "middle book" in the series. Picking up where City of Golden Shadow left off, this book moved the pieces of all the players in the story without seeming to progress the plot too much.

The river becomes a stream of spilled water where Orlando, Fredericks and Chief Strike Anywhere's (the match's father) lives are threatened by ravenous salad tongs that call the river home. Shortly after Orlando and Fredericks are swept away, the others find themselves in a world where the river takes on the form of a jet stream, where flight is as natural as walking.
