Artsy Marketplace Partnerships - Artsy

An art consignment agreement is a contract between an artist and gallery where the artist provides the gallery art at (typically) no cost and, in exchange, the gallery agrees to sell the art for a commission. Generally speaking, a starting point for the gallery's commission starts at 50%. While that commission may seem high at first to an artist, this arrangement is often beneficial for both parties, as an artist can greatly benefit from a gallery's expertise in selling art and creating ...
