The Way of Mission asks us to consider what we are doing with our lives, and to make a choice to make a difference. So often we are told that being faithful is about believing the right things or following the right rules. What if a life of faith is more about having a mission?

The Way of Mission | A Fresh Approach to Sharing Your Faith

To say that faith is a way of seeing could easily lead to the view that one sees only darkness and has no perceived reason or ground for faith until one arbitrarily believes—leaps into the dark. That is, faith could thus be viewed as a decision without sufficient ground or good reason. But this would be a mistake.
