Bharatha Paryatanam Kuttikrishna Marar

Kuttikrishna Marar takes many of the characters and episodes of the great epic and analyses them in their literary context. This type of analysis, where no external factors are brought into play other than the clues provided in the text itself, enthralled me when I first read it in my early twenties. I don't remember much to give a detailed review here - which shows it is high time for a re-read.
