One reason why the Megane seems to have been around forever is its outward similarity to its predecessor, the Renault 19. In fact, the Megane has only been with us since 1996 making it as old as, say, an Audi A3 - a car hardly thought of as a creaking veteran. The First Generation car did great business for Renault, but the Second Generation Megane, which arrived in April 1999, performed even ...
