While much has changed in higher education in the last 25 years, Steven M. Cahn maintains that the important ethical issues (and their appropriate resolutions) have not changed that much at all. That's why there are very few changes in Saints and Scamps: Ethics in Academia, just released by Rowman & Littlefield in a 25th anniversary edition. Cahn, the author, is professor of philosophy and the former provost and vice president of academic affairs at the Graduate Center of the City University ...
