Generous Justice Quotes by Timothy J. Keller

Generous Justice contains two basic ideas, and you can see these in the title and subtitle. First, God's work of graciously justifying a person will inevitably result in the believer's desire to be just and to do justice. Justice follows justification. God's grace makes us just, as the subtitle puts it. If you are a Christian, you should have a growing desire to see justice done, both in this life and the next.
