A selection of free-to-use (ie public domain or copyright-free) hymns and songs, based on themes from the Roman Catholic lectionary for Pentecost Sunday in Year A. "Free-to-use" means the words can be copied and sung to at least one tune with no concerns about copyright or performance licensing - sometimes in a limited setting. Many of these hymns are old/traditional - but where possible a variety of styles and genres are included.

For hymns, there is a wealth of public domain material - and this post from Nick Alexander explains many of the benefits of using it. Psalms can be a little more tricky. They don't appear to be well represented in the hymns published prior to 1922 (America) or more than 70 years since the versifier's (*) death (Europe).
