Just Hospitality: God's Welcome in a World of Difference ...

Grace is the hospitality of God to welcome sinners not because of their goodness but because of his glory. If God chose not to magnify the glory of his own self-sufficiency, and instead to enrich himself by looking for talented and virtuous housemates, there would be no grace in the world, and no hospitality, and no salvation.

Strategic Hospitality | Desiring God

Generous, authentic and warm hospitality is life-giving to all who worship with you. And though the gestures are often small, they are still important because they give a significant message to people: You are valued. You are a person of God and we welcome you in the name of Christ.

Hospitality in Worship: A Reflection of God's Gracious ...

In Scripture, Russell sees God's welcome or hospitality as having four overlapping components: unexpected divine presence, advocacy for the marginalized, mutual welcome and creation of community. For the church today, hospitality must be viewed as a central issue for those who want the church to matter in the larger culture.

God has found hospitality in Mary's womb and now he walks the streets of Bethlehem seeking it elsewhere. Will God sleep in the streets on his birth night? The innkeeper redeems humanity with a welcome to a stable, most likely a cave. And God's first breath of human air is a mixture of filed hay, animal poop, damp earth, and cold cave.
