Love Unveiled The Catholic Faith

A more accurate title would be 'The Catholic Faith Asserted'. The doctrines of the Catholic Faith are set out, backed up by a literalist approach to the Bible. None of the problems of pain, or of the apparent absence of God's love from the world is addressed, nor is any evidence of that love adduced.

Love Unveiled: The Catholic Faith Explained by Edward Sri. Man cannot live without love.... His life is senseless if love is not revealed to him, if he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it and make it his own, if he does not participate intimately in it. If you were asked what immediately comes to mind when you hear the words "Catholic Church", would you answer "an intimate relationship with the God who loves me?"
