Everything to Nothing: The Poetry of the Great War, Revolution and the Transformation of Europe, by Geert Buelens. For much of the past century, the First World War has been remembered through the myths created in its aftermath. The memoirs and autobiographical writings of these years, preoccupied with their need to remember and to forget, told a story of lost youth and innocence, of the sweeping away of past certainties, of a gradual recognition that the "enemy" was not the other side ...
