Christlike definition and meaning | Collins English Dictionary Like Christ by Andrew Murray, 1895, F.H. Revell edition, Microform in English

Like Christ (1895 edition) | Open Library Answer: Becoming more like Christ is the desire of every believer, and it is encouraging to know that God has the same desire for us. In fact, the Bible says that God “predestined [believers] to be conformed to the likeness of his Son” (Romans 8:29). Making us Christlike is God’s work, and He will see it through to the end (Philippians 1:6).

How can I become more Christlike? | GotQuestions.org Key Verse From this time on we do not think of anyone as the world does. In the past we thought of Christ as the world thinks, but we no longer think of him in that way. If anyone belongs to Christ, there is a new creation. The old things have gone; everything is made...

You were Created to Become like Christ - One Church NY We want to be like Jesus as much as possible and the Apostle Paul describes what Jesus is like in Philippians 2:5-8; “Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

To Be Christ-Like - apostolicdeliverancefive.org Free Even though He walked in a chaotic, broken world, Jesus always displayed peace and purity. On Truth For Life, Alistair Begg encourages us to develop the same mindset as we navigate our equally broken modern world. Philippians 4:4-9

Thinking like Christ - Programs - Truth For Life kpakpandoN: A Christian is not necessarily someone who follows a set of religious rules, but rather, someone who has a cordial relationship with Christ. A Christian behaves like Christ. Christianity is about Christ who lives in you and not all about do’s and don’ts.

Legalistic Or Christ-Like? - Religion - Nigeria The Christ-like Life. When people really get to know us, do they know us as Christians? The Christian life is the Christ-life. Can others see the Master living in us? I remember the point being made in a different way. “If you were arrested for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?” That’s a challenging question.

The Christ-like Life | Churches of God Be Like Christ. But we Christians, not Jordanians. Specifically, we are Catholics. We are disciples or followers or lovers of Christ. We are not so much dedicated to a lofty ideal as imitators of the Perfect Man. As St. John Paul II liked to say, we must become what we are. This means we must come to be more Christian. We ought to be Christians whose lives are consistent with what we believe.
