"The Truth about Style" revisits that concept in very personal ways, as Stacy London tells her own story along with other women. Stacy refers to these as start-overs. For me, the most inspiring start-over is for Janis, a cancer survivor. Stacy writes: "Style is often written off as superficial and not an essential part of life. The fact is, you can live without it.

I can’t have WNTW anymore, but at least I could get Stacy London’s The Truth About Style. The former co-host of the show, with her enjoyable wit and sly asides, offers advice “on using style as a tool to help create the image you want to put out in the world that tells others how you want to be treated.”
