Patriotic Scripts. Despite all the party lines and political opinions that can divide us as a country – even as a church – it is often the gratitude we have for the men and women in uniform that unite us, and ignite within us a sense of patriotism. Both sides of my family know the very real sacrifice of service to our nation, and so it is with incredible pride in the goodness of our country, and those who protect us, that I share these scripts as a resource to your church.
