Book review: 'Now is the hour' by Tom Spanbauer. In Chuck Palahniuk's writing memoir: 'Consider This: Moments in my writing life after which everything was different', he talks a lot about Tom Spanbauer. As well as being his mentor and friend, Spanbauer also coined the term 'Dangerous writing'; a minimalistic approach where writers are encouraged to 'write from the body' in order to express painful personal truths.

Book review: 'Now is the hour' by Tom Spanbauer

Creator of the concept of 'Dangerous Writing', Tom Spanbauer utilises a brand of literary minimalism, focusing on heavy topics such as race and sexual identity and paying very close attention to language. Never more has this approach been championed than in this fourth book, Now is the Hour. A coming-of-age novel of grand proportions, it tells the story of 17-year old Rigby John Kluesener, who is escaping a repressed adolescence spent on his parents' farm in small-town, 1960s America.
