The Ducati Multistrada is a sort of do-it-all Sporting twin too, but conceptually it's something else and looks more like a political refugee from the swinging sixties. It is boldly minimalist, it is painted a blaring, communist-party red, it is sexily slim and there's a true air-cooled motor sitting down there, just like they used to make `em.

The Multistrada shocked the world at the 2001 Milan show and then went on sale in 2003. The first year bike had some teething problems. The side-stand was too short allowing the bike to topple over quicker than a toddler, the seat was nothing more than a piece of plywood covered with vinyl and delicate mirrors broke easily and were placed far too close together to see anything more than your own shoulders.
