Something from the Nightside by Simon R. Green (2003 ...

Something From The Nightside took me three attempts before I finally got through it. The first time I was reading it, I was busy and couldn't stay with it. The book is one of those slim volumes packed with energy and excitement that are meant to be devoured in no more than two or three sittings. I couldn't meet that requirement the first time.

And then there's the Nightside. Simon R. Green created a place like no other, where good and evil don't exist and the only rule is buyer beware. Anything can be found and bought or sold in the Nightside, sometimes at the price of your soul, or your first born, or a bit of blood, or sometimes cold hard cash, but all types of currency can be used and everything can be purchased.
