Through the opening of the book Violet comes to life and her identity as a product of her upbringing and experience speaks directly to us. Bach's society in AD 2230 is a social comment on our society, an extemporisation of some elements taken too far.

Book review of Valhalla by Ari Bach

Ari Bach liked Nathan Smith's review of Ragnarök (Valhalla, #2): "The best of the series, Ragnarök furthers the already interesting characters and world - and makes you hurt. Put any happy thoughts out of your head, this one is pretty brutal.

Ari Bach does it again. Valhalla and Ragnarok were both amazing, and two of the best books I've ever read. And Gudsriki managed to surpass both of them. Every single page is engaging.
