Are You Experienced? by William Sutcliffe

Are You Experienced? showcases what being a backpacker is about. Sutcliffe takes the very worst of experiences for Dave and puts a humorous twist on them. His writing is extremely witty and sharp and I couldn't put this book down. Considering I wasn't looking forward to reading it, I ended up loving it completely.

Are You Experienced? Audiobook | William Sutcliffe ...

Here, as elsewhere, Sutcliffe goes for the quick cheap laugh, without trying harder. Surely Indian classical literature would, for example, offer a simple sentiment as that expressed by Aeschylus -- but Sutcliffe does not seek one out. Are you Experienced ? is a backpacker novel, yet another version of a traveller's travails in India. There are some decent laughs along the way -- a fair number of genuinely amusing scenes, and two or three striking sentences -- but Sutcliffe goes about his ...

His first novel for Young Adults, The Wall, was published in 2013 to much critical acclaim, including being shortlisted for the Guardian Fiction Prize. Circus of Thieves is his first novel for younger children.

William Sutcliffe Books and Book Reviews | LoveReading4Kids

Don't expect high-brow literature here, but if you have ever been to that part of the world, Dave's experiences and Sutcliffe's descriptions of them are dead-on. It will take you back! The book truly captures the low-budget backpacker's experience in India, mainly by pointing out how absurd situations and people can be.
