I thought "Them or Us" was a decent conclusion the the Hater series. The first book in the trilogy, "Hater," was by far the superior of the 3. For me, the books declined in quality and interest as the trilogy progressed. The first book, "Hater," is a tense and insightfully unique take on the zombie fad that's been omnipresent the past several ...

[Book Review] 'Them or Us' Concludes 'Hater' Trilogy ...

Them or Us, the conclusion, is set a year after the “Hater” attacks began and several months after the “Unchanged” dropped nuclear weapons on every major city in Great Britain. This book is your typically post-nuclear war with a dash of “Hater” on “Unchanged” battles. There are the battles over food and power.
