Miss Moonshines Emporium Of Happy

Miss Moonshine's Emporium of Happy Endings is an anthology put together by a group of romantic novelists and short story writers from Yorkshire and Lancashire in the north of England. The group meet regularly in the little town of Hebden Bridge, and this location, lying as it does on the moors near the border between the two counties, led to the group name Authors on the Edge.

Miss Moonshine's Emporium of Happy Endings by Authors on the Edge. It has been fabulous to meet Miss Moonshine a lady of a certain age in a different time period who a little like Dr Who seems to defy age and death as she pops up in modern times too. A lady who has a certain magic and mystical aura who clearly wants to share only goodness with those around her.
