Two people. How many lies? A woman and a man drive at dusk to a rural mansion for a final weekend together. It's all been a game. Both players understood the rules. Or so the woman thinks. At the house, a new game begins. A trap has been set. But how and why? And for whom? This gripping, provocative new novel by one of Australia's finest writers is a psychological thriller for the modern age.

The Engagement is shot through with a deeply erotic charge without being explicitly pornographic. It's no Fifty Shades of Grey; its kicks, and kicks in the teeth, are much more subtle. The Independent (U.K.) Hooper has crafted a terrific tale full of dark corners and dead-ends that leave the reader wondering what to believe.
