War of the Foxes by Richard Siken. Posted on November 9, 2016. by B. Richard Siken's second collection of poems is centered around the idea of painting. Many poems are titled the way paintings would be, and give some description of what the painting might contain, in spirit if not form. He's using painting as a way to examine self expression, looking at a painting as a way to tell a story, to convey an emotion.
