The Royal Air Force (RAF) has announced that it will be releasing its archive of recent UFO reports to the public. Like the US Air Force, the RAF is no stranger to receiving and investigating reports of unidentified flying objects, having been looking into the phenomenon for more than 50 years. Back in 2009 however, the decision was made to wind down its UFO unit on the basis that no

UFO report had ever yielded evidence of a credible threat against the country.
