The Essential John le Carré - The New York Times

Once the newspaper of record for the richest and most powerful empire the world has ever seen, The New York Times still leads the world in in-depth coverage of one particular topic: the internal politics of The New York Times. Its foreign reporting, buoyed by budgets British newspapers can only look upon with envy, is now overshadowed by its recent coverage of ‘The Gray Lady’s’ own ...

New York City 1900-1919 In Color HD - YouTube

I have the impression that the documentation about color schemes of Civil War vessels is, in general, pretty vague. The written documents rarely mention colors, so researchers are left with two types of sources: contemporary oil paintings and photographs (all of the latter, of course, being in black and white).
