Regarding Ducks And Universes Neve

Regarding Ducks and Universes by Neve Maslakovic was an unexpected surprise that I owe all to Goodreads and their exploration section. This is a story that starts in 1986 when a professor creates and links an alternate universe. Universe A and Universe B are linked and travel between the two ensues.

The two universes have a privacy law that far exceeds anything we have here in our universe and really holds the two universes together and to a certain degree, apart. The whole same yet different concept was explored in Mielville's The City and The City and Regarding Ducks and Universes is similar yet, much easier to take in.
