Prosecuted But Not Silenced is a powerful documentary about a mother and daughter's tragic involvement with the judicial system when there were allegations of child sexual abuse—a human rights and civil rights issue for women and children. It is an important educational tool for judges, lawyers, social workers, therapists, politicians, and the general public so that people realize what still occurs today.

Maralee McLean is a child advocate speaker, protective mother, and author of Prosecuted But Not Silenced. Maralee's passion for child advocacy developed over two decades of living a mother's worse nightmare. Fighting the system both body and soul, she gained the insight that this was not her nightmare alone.
