Here are some of my favorite books about female friendship: The Burning Girl, by Claire Messud. A semi-gothic novel about the intense friendship between two pre-teenage girls, Julia and Cassie, best friends since they were small. They were two opposites: Julia was quiet and sensitive; Cassie was the mischievous one.

Quarantine has a completely different meaning right now. But in July 2019, when Wilder Girls debuted, it was related to the Tox: a strange, deadly virus running rampant through The Raxter School for Girls, on a remote island off the coast of Maine. This novel of female friendship is set against the backdrop of a dystopian future, as 16-year-old best friends, Hetty and Byatt, tell the often violent story in alternating chapters.
